

Acting Out Productions

Summer Theater Workshops!

acting out!

Join Mara Flynn for this week-long session of creative immersion in a supportive environment! Each day will begin with a little music, followed by super fun improvisation games to develop voice, body and imagination. Students will create characters and an original production to be performed on the last day. All levels of experience welcome and parts for all!

Workshops will be held in the Acting Out Studio and the Actor's Studio located in the Tannery at 50 Water Street in Newburyport.

Mara Flynn is co-director of Acting Out. She holds a BFA from NYU's Tisch School of the Arts and has been teaching for over a decade, including workshops at Governor's Academy, Newburyport Montessori, the Brown School, New Hampshire Theater Project, as well as 17 years of her own summer programs in Groveland and Newburyport and classes at Acting Out!
