

Homelessness in our Local Schools

A panel discussion — Wednesday, April 25, 7 pm

Central Congregational Church

14 Titcomb Street, Newburyport

Nearly 350 children in the Newburyport, Amesbury, and Triton school systems lack a secure home. They go to school every morning, carrying this uncertainty and instability with them.

Moderator: Ed Cameron, CEO of Housing Families, Inc. and former Newburyport city councilor.

Panelists: Susan Viccaro, Newburyport Superintendent of Schools and Angela Bik, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction; James Montanari, Principal, Salisbury Elementary School; a representative from Amesbury Schools, and from the Pettengill House, which supports the children at Amesbury Schools.
