

Housing Insecurity and Citizen Advocacy

How Can You Make a Difference?

Tuesday, December 4, 7 pm

Central Congregational Church, 14 Titcomb Street, Newburyport

MASSACHUSETTS
COALITION
FOR THE HOMELESS

Federal, state and local government officials make budget and policy decisions that help or hurt local efforts to address housing insecurity. Through their approval of program staffing and funds, they can help people avoid homelessness or move them out of insecure housing situations. How important is community support to that decision making? How does an ordinary citizen stay informed about key policy and budget issues? How can individuals make a difference? Discover what you can do to find local solutions.

Speakers

Kelly Turley is the Associate Director of the Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless, where she leads advocacy work.

Ed Cameron is the CEO of Housing Families, Inc. and former Newburyport city councilor who currently serves on a local zoning board.
