156	Susan and Charles Nichols Scholarship (#156)		$1000
	DUE DATE: Monday, April 22, 2024

This Scholarship is a result of turning an unusable piece of land in Newburyport's downtown area into a usable space. It took permission from the City Mayor, the DPW Director and raising funds from the Newburyport 5 Cents Savings Bank. Mr. Charles Nichols was a waterfront park trustee for 10 years & the park manager for 6 years. Mr. Nichols designed, raised funding and implemented his idea into a desirable space called Nichols Park. Mr. Nichols and his wife Susan have a great appreciation for our planet. Mr. Nichols would like students who are applying for this scholarship to have the same passion and concerns with our planet. For example: The ever growing need for landfills could result in relaxing requirements in the preparation and capping of the landfill. Relaxing of the regulations could result in the contamination of our ground waters.

Criteria for this scholarship: A Newburyport High School student who has great appreciation and concern with our planet, is enrolled in Environmental Science Courses and who is planning to pursue a degree in Environmental Sciences.

To Apply: Please fill out the NHS External Application form which can be downloaded in Naviance and return to the Main Office by April 26 - 3:00 PM. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered

139	Write the World Scholarship	$1200
	DUE DATE: Wednesday, April 10, 2024

Write the World is a $1,200 scholarship for a student committed to using writing to promote social justice. Candidates must submit one piece of poetry or prose and a brief statement about how they envision continuing to "right" the world through their writing. Given that Akira Kurosawa said, "To be an artist means never to avert one's eyes," explain in no more than three paragraphs how you hope your work will open the eyes of those who read it.

Please note that your piece does not necessarily have to be about racism or climate change, although those are two fine topics. It only needs to address the dignity every human deserves, which can even be done in a love poem!

Gap Year eligible to apply

To Apply: Submit two typed copies of the work and explanation – one with your name on it and one without - in order to facilitate impartial judging by professional writers Andre Dubus III and Rhina Espaillat. Email work to dszabo@newburyport.k12.ma.us or send it to Newburyport High School, 241 High Street to the attention of D. Szabo or leave it in Mrs. Szabo's school mailbox via Ms. Alice Crupi by April 10 by 3 pm
